

KIRILL SANKEVICH

PROFILE

My name is Kirill Sankevich. I'm originally from Minsk, but currently living in Tbilisi.

I build websites and applications using HTML, CSS, JS, and React. I'm adept at translating provided designs into functional products and continually refining my craft with each project.

I'm driven, results-oriented, and constantly striving for self-improvement. Responsibility isn't just a word to me; it's a guiding principle. With each project, I aim to demonstrate a commitment to quality and precision. My goal is not only to complete tasks efficiently but to deliver the highest standard of work.
